Programs

- Long-Term Care Conferences: The MLN is committed to ensuring nursing home administrators (NHA) and other health care professionals have quality continuing educational courses. In addition to numerous one-day workshops we offer multi-day NHA leadership conferences and web-based learning.
- Director of Nursing in Long-Term Care Conference & Charge Nurse/CNA Day: This conference, held twice each year, provides expert guidance on topics vital to every new and seasoned director of nursing as well as the charge nurse and CNA.
- Nurse Educator Programs: The MLN offers multiple programs focused on educators. Several one-day programs and a multi-day conference are offered to expand the skills of the nurse educator in both academic and practical settings.
- Nursing Student Conference and Job Expo: All levels of nursing students are invited to attend this two-day conference. Students attend sessions planned specifically for them and attend a job expo to network with potential employers.
- Charitable Trust: Designed to further the mission of the MLN, the Charitable Trust provides health care professionals a method to designate a portion of their estate to the MLN.
- Tuition Discount: Members receive special tuition rates to Chamberlain College of Nursing in St. Louis, Missouri.

Mission Statement

The MLN advances global, national, and state health by supporting the delivery of quality health care by nurses and other health care providers through education, collaboration, and information.

Core Values

Caring: MLN values acting with concern and consideration for the whole person. We believe the value of caring should be inherent in all actions of health care professionals. All organizational actions and activities are managed in a participative and person-centered manner, demonstrating an ability to understand the needs of others and a commitment to act in the best interest of all stakeholders.

Integrity: MLN consistently demonstrates open communication, fair decision making, and humility. Not only is doing the right thing how we do business, but our actions reveal our commitment to transparency.

Diversity: MLN embraces acceptance and respect of each individual and recognizes individual differences and uniqueness among ideas, values and varied characteristics and dimensions of human beings. Our culture promotes inclusivity.

Excellence: MLN is committed to continuous growth, improvement, and understanding. The status quo and mediocrity are not tolerated and transformation is supported. Through teamwork, the organization stays abreast of the latest trends and technology to meet dynamic needs of stakeholders.

Affiliation

The Missouri League for Nursing is a constituent of the National League of Nursing, a non-profit coalition of nurse educators, education agencies, and health care agencies who work to assure quality health care through the continuous improvement of health care education and practice.
