3 Hour Programs

Bullying, Incivility, and Workplace Violence in Health Care

Target Audience: NHA, RN, LPN, AD, OT, PT, RD/DTR, SW

CE Approved: NHA (3 hours; Administrative)

Program: Registration 8:30 a.m., Program 9 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

Purpose: Do health care professionals still eat their young? What is the difference between bullying and incivility? The American Nurses Association has recently posted a strong “zero tolerance” position statement on incivility, bullying, and workplace violence. This presentation will update you on what is considered incivility and bullying, provide examples, and help health care professionals recognize and prevent bullying in the health care workplace.

Objectives

1. Compare bullying and incivility in the workplace.
2. Recognize bullying in the workplace.
3. Discuss ways to prevent bullying and incivility in the workplace.
4. Describe the different types of workplace violence: Violence from patient to nurse, nurse to nurse violence and physician to nurse violence.
5. Identify behavior/actions that lead to workplace violence and how to reduce the risk of becoming a victim of violence.

Speaker: BJ Whiffen, DNP, RN, ACNP-BC, FNP-BC, Dean of Nursing, Southeast Missouri Hospital College of Nursing & Health Sciences, Cape Girardeau, Missouri

Leadership: Become the Leader that You have Always Wanted to Be

Target Audience: NHA, RN, LPN, AD, OT, PT, RD/DTR, SW

CE Approved: NHA (5 hours; Administrative)

Program: Registration 8:30 a.m., Program 9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m., Lunch 12 – 1 p.m.

Purpose: If we take a step back and think about it, the vast majority of health care professionals have the skill set to be effective leaders and have a positive impact on their teams. The issue becomes when problems arise in real time. Leaders need to be able to prioritize and adjust to the reality that is presented. All of this has to be done without the luxury of additional time to confront these issues. This interactive workshop will give you tips to be a better leader.

Objectives

1. Discuss ways to talk to staff about difficult topics.
2. Identify ways to make sure you feel comfortable taking a day off.
3. Recognize ways to communicate with families about unrealistic expectations or misplaced anger.
