Leadership from the Inside Out

3.0 administrative hours, includes 15 minute break

Speaker: Sharon McGloin, MSOD, MS, CTRS, President and Owner of Experiential Alternatives, Kansas City, Missouri

Who you are as a leader should be no different than who you are as a person. Based on eight areas of mastery, we will explore ways to build your leadership profile and strengthen your unique leadership gifts. Come prepared to participate as the session will be interactive.

3:45 – 4:00 P.M.

Break

4:00 – 5:30 P.M.

Prevention and Management of Pressure Ulcers

1.5 patient care hours

Speaker: Amy Bierk, RN, BSN, Program Director at Boone Hospital Wound Healing Center, Columbia, Missouri.

This presentation will provide attendees with an overview of pressure ulcer development, risk factors, prevention, staging, and treatment options. Guidelines for documentation will also be discussed.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24

8:00 – 10:00 A.M.

Trauma Informed Care: Shifting to a Person Centered Culture

2.0 patient care hours

Speaker: Sharon McGloin, MSOD, MS, CTRS, President and Owner of Experiential Alternatives, Kansas City, Missouri

Becoming a Trauma Informed organization requires a mindset change from asking the question, “What is wrong with you?” to “What happened to you?” This workshop will explore how we define trauma, trauma informed care and resilience as well as practical approaches for becoming a trauma informed organization. We will explore frameworks that can assist you in becoming a person centered agency.

10:00 – 10:30 A.M.

Break

10:30 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.

Whose Job Is It? Why Hospice Within the Nursing Facility?

1.5 administrative hours

Speaker: Judy Waechter, RN, CRRN, Clinical Liaison, Kansas City Hospice & Palliative Care

When would a resident be appropriate for hospice? What does it mean when a resident is “on hospice?” What will the hospice do and how do we coordinate care with them? Learn why your long-term care facility should be partnering with hospice for your residents. This offering will explain hospice care including philosophy of care, eligibility criteria, benefits and services.

12:00 – 1:00 P.M.

Lunch

1:00 – 3:00 P.M.

Finding the Self in Self-Care

2.0 administrative hours

Speaker: Judy Waechter, RN, CRRN, Clinical Liaison, Kansas City Hospice & Palliative Care

Health care today promotes the goal of self-care more than ever before. Self-care is therapeutic in sustaining life and health, in recovering from disease or injury, or coping with their effects. Health Care providers can be their own worst enemy when it comes to their personal health. We owe it to ourselves to demonstrate the same level of self-care that we promote to our patients. Participants will explore their current practices and identify ways to treat themselves well.

3:00 – 3:15 P.M.

Break

3:15 – 4:15 P.M.

Medical Marijuana for Missouri Healthcare Considerations

1.0 administrative hour

Speaker: Sandra Reed Wilson, MSN, RN, ACNS-BC, Director of Nursing, Crowder College, Neosho, Missouri

Interactive discussion about the Missouri Medical Marijuana legislation and what it means to healthcare employers and employees. We will look at the timeline for progress of medical marijuana in the State of Missouri and discuss policies and procedures for testing of employees.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25

8:00 – 10:00 A.M.

Managing Dementia–Related Behaviors in VA Long-Term Care Setting

2.0 patient care hours

Speaker: Michael Palmer, PhD, ABPP, Staff Psychologist, Harry S Truman Memorial Veterans' Hospital

This presentation will focus on two programs that the VA uses to address dementia-related behaviors; STAR-VA, an evidence-based protocol for behavior management in Community Living Centers, and Behavioral Recovery Outreach (BRO), a pilot program for addressing dementia-related behaviors of veterans receiving care in community settings such as VA-contract nursing homes, State Veterans' homes, and at home with their families.

10:00 – 10:15 A.M.

Break

10:15 – 11:15 A.M.
